About us

Allied Foams is a foam and mattress manufacturer which is synonymous with quality polyurethane Foams in India. It gives us immense pleasure to know that our PU Foams and mattress brings comfort and luxury to millions of people.

Allied has a wide range of Foams starting from low to medium and high density in industrial and mattress grades. Besides it also makes special purpose Foams like Visco, HR & Fire Retardant foam.

The Inception :

2003 was when Allied Foams commenced manufacture of PU Foams in Noida, as an offshoot of our parent company A.S. Enterprises which is India's largest PU foam machinery manufacturing and exporting company. Established by Mr. Ashok Puri who is a well known Foam expert, the company has attained a respectable turnover in the foam market in a short period.

The Technological Advantage :

Our state of the art continuous foaming line is A.S. Enterprises make, is equipped with a computer controlled, closed loop monitoring system which produces flat foam blocks with high accuracy and repeat performance .

The cutting equipment installed is of the latest technology, it gives fairly good accuracy in size at high speed of operations. We have in-house mattress covering section which offers a rich and varied choice to our growing customer base across India.

The Products that Reflect Elegance:

We at Allied, manufacture a wide array of PU Foams that includes Upholstery Foam, High Density PU Foam and Hard Foam for acoustic insulation, Memory Foam and Soft Foams for a delightfully airy feel. Our range also includes fire retardant PU Foams.

We offer a variety of combination mattress of PU foam with Rebonded, HR, Visco, Coir and Spring. Apart from foam and mattresses we also offer pillows, cushions, sofa seats and bolsters, meeting the diverse needs of our esteemed customers.

Spreading Its Wings :

Today Allied Foams is a large scale manufacturer of PU Foams and mattresses in India, with increasing customer base across the country. We continue to achieve double digit growth each year with our committed sales team working round the clock with dedication and perseverance.

Allied is the first choice of interior decorators and manufacturers of bedding as well as homemakers who look for quality and performance. Allied Foams also acts as a demonstration unit for visitors from India and abroad who are interested in buying machinery of A.S. Enterprises.

Quality at the Core :

We pride ourselves on the quality of products and our team of skilled professionals. Allied has progressed because of its ethical policies, focus on excellence, constant innovation exemplified in our range of innovative Sleepin and Spine Aligner foam beddings. Our equipment are upgraded regularly by A.S. Enterprises to keep us at a competitive advantage in the market.

Distribution Network :

Allied Foams has a strong distribution network throughout India and we value our dealers and distributors just as we pride in our teams of handpicked professionals who are responsible for our growth and success.

We ensure delivery of products at our customers premises within the scheduled time frame. Consistency is a hallmark of our PU Foams and perfect finish with durability ingrained into each product.
